

Reception – Knowledge Organiser

Cross-curricular – Autumn Term 1

We're Going on a Bear Hunt / All About Me

Milestones:

I will be able to come into school independently and organise my belongings.

I will be able to follow school routines.

I will be able to talk about my interests, hobbies and family and listen to some of my friends talk about theirs.

I will be able to listen to and follow instructions.

I will be able to talk to new children and grown-ups.

I can paint a self-portrait, thinking carefully about my face and its details.

I can begin to communicate how I'm feeling.

I will know and be actively aware of my high five rights.

Key Vocabulary:

Good morning
What is your name?
I would like... / I need...
I feel...
We have the right...
Please / thank you

Please can I have a turn after you?
Would you like to play?
Where is the...?

We have the right to be:

educated listened to treated fairly safe

healthy

Our key text this half term:

Other books you may be interested in:

Show me three!

Looking eyes,
Listening ears,
Closed lips

